WELCOME TO THE PLOUGH HOTEL

HISTORY

The Plough Hotel has stood on this site since 1861 when Solomon Stephens was granted a liquor license. It was first 'Stephens Hotel', then 'The Plough Inn' a year later. In 1891 the original building was destroyed by fire and replaced with the current wooden building. It was a popular stopping place for draymen & coach passengers as more settlers made Rangiora their home. It has seen many additions since then, each reflecting the decade it was built in. The carpet is a good indication of when the restaurant part was added.

Make yourself at home & have a look around at some of the pictures & books we have found of the good old days.

For functions & large groups we can offer customised menus. Contact
